#MY PLATFORM

JIANGSU UNIVERSITY

My STORY WITH JIANGSU UNIVERSITY

Having completed high school, I knew the time had come for me to make choices that would have a great impact on my life positively. My first choice for my University education was actually Malaysia but after careful consideration and research I opted for China. Luckily, I knew someone studying at Jiangsu University who helped with the application and made sure I got the necessary information about the university and China. After much anticipation and anxiety, I got on a plane destined for Shanghai via Addis Abba in September of 2014. I was finally in China starting a new chapter of my life, still anxious and in wonder. Having settled in, I made it a point that I had to make life easy for myself by abiding and following the rules. I had to be friendly with everyone and respect others as we all came from different backgrounds, cultures and were eager to learn mandarin and the Chinese culture.
